Continuing the celebration of the Year of the Nurse and Midwife. Due to the extraordinary circumstances of 2020, the American Nurses Association is extending the celebration of nurses through 2021. American Nurse Journal is supporting those efforts to provide nurses with a multitude of educational resources throughout the year.

Engagement through best practices with the most active nurses and nurse leaders throughout the country.
The American Nurses Association, Al Roker Entertainment, and HealthCom Media, publisher of American Nurse Journal, have joined forces to produce a network television and multi-channel event to celebrate the heroic work of nurses and the positive impact they have on our nation in this time of crisis, and beyond. The campaign, titled “American Nurse Heroes,” will present true stories of nurses on the frontlines of the COVID-19 crisis and more as they strive to deliver high quality health care.

• The goal of the campaign is to increase the public’s awareness and appreciation of nurses, while educating viewers on the magnitude of nurses’ work and their positive impact on society and the American healthcare system.

• Numbering more than 4 million strong, nurses are the largest group of health care professionals in this country. Nurses are with patients and families in all settings where health care is delivered from birth to the end of life.

• Globally, the nursing profession marks a milestone in 2020, as the World Health Organization declared it the International Year of the Nurse and Midwife in honor of the 200th anniversary of the birth of Florence Nightingale. Year of the Nurse has been extended through July 2021.

Video and Podcast Content Strategy

- Serialized short-form episodes focused on clinical how-to’s, best practice research, debates, panel discussions driven by thought leaders.

- Each video is backed by an advanced analytical-based marketing campaign to create buzz and interest in the highlighted topics; and to track views and engagement for re-targeting messaging.

- Video is a powerful media format that brings faces to the topics discussed. Videos are approximately 7-15 minutes.

Video

Video has become an essential part of how hospitals, clinics, nursing schools, and other healthcare facilities teach, train, and communicate. The video format has become the preferred medium in healthcare settings, as it is a simple tool that can quickly and effectively convey information better than text, and that can be shared and reviewed easily anytime and anywhere it’s needed.

Podcasts

A Podcast is a digital audio file that is available for listening, downloading and storage on various devices.

These audio files are often presented in topic-oriented episodes, and produced as a series that can be syndicated to a user’s desktop, mobile application, or portable media player.

- Content created in video, audio and/or written-formats will help drive awareness and consideration with a key audience, and to break through the noise of a highly competitive market with precise messaging (ex. Target list, CNOs, VP Nursing, etc.)

- Leverage KOL influencers through highly powerful video content and messaging

- Educate and support nurse leaders to better understand workforce optimization and benefits of data driven practices while building brand awareness

- Generate research along the way by understanding engagement and behavior with content on site

- Capture qualified leads and associated data

- Supported by a detailed marketing campaign
KOL/Though Leadership eResources

eBooks
An eBook is a publication featuring copy and images and consists of academic, marketing or sales related content. eBooks can be designed with an organization’s brand standards, or as an unbiased editorial or research formatted document.

White Papers
A White Paper, also referred to as a Case Study, is an authoritative report or guide that informs readers about complex topics or relevant industry issues. White Papers present the authoring organization’s philosophy on the matter, and are meant to help readers understand an issue, solve a problem, or make a decision. In business, a White Paper is the perfect asset to persuade an audience and promote a product or viewpoint. White Papers differ from eBooks in that they tend to be less visual and more academic in their presentation.

Infographics
An Infographic, also referred to as Information Graphics, is a visual representation of data or knowledge intended to clearly present information at a glance. Developed specifically for Health Care Professionals, Infographics can be the best format to illustrate statistics, patterns, trends and comparisons. Since they make minimal use of text, infographics can be a powerful tool for simplifying concepts, mapping relationships, and providing essential insights. The use of compelling images can make an abstract idea easier to understand, and ideal for marketing and instructional communications.

These sponsored assets serve as a brand-building and awareness opportunity for supporting organizations.

Special Reports
A Special Report, also referred to as an Editorial Supplement, are sponsored, fully independent publications that are published for distribution with one of our journals, but also can serve as stand a alone thought leadership piece.
