

learning and professional growth. Becoming a nurse has given me the chance to live out these values every day -- advocating for patients, supporting families, and contributing to positive change in healthcare. Nursing is a calling to serve, uplift, and inspire others, just as the nurses in my family have done before me"

"Being a NextGen Ambassador has been an incredibly meaningful experience for me. Through this role, I have been able to connect with nurses under 30 and build relationships with peers who are navigating similar stages in their nursing careers. These connections have created a strong sense of community and support.

Through opportunities such as the Magnet & Pathway Conference and Leadership Summit, I have met nurses who have quickly become role models and sources of inspiration. The NextGen program has also provided access to three wonderful mentors who are always just a text away and willing to offer guidance and encouragement. Being a NextGen Ambassador is helping me grow my leadership skills and reinforcing my passion for continued learning." ■
